THE BOY WHO LOVED

By Liora Sophie

This book is dedicated to Eema, Adina, Avishai, and Elisha,
and to you, if you loved Oliver too.

Once

upon a time, there was a very good boy named Oliver.

Oliver was the fluffiest, cutest, friendliest dog in the world.

But most of all...

he loved.

He loved so many things...

naps

sitting in the
sunbeam

belly rubs

and every person he ever
met

and his favorite thing in the whole wide world was going for a walk.

He also loved

sitting by the fire

and on

very soft

and just like everyone, sometimes he had bad hair days.

He was silly

and funny

and sometimes they called him a little weirdo.

He was a curious little doggie and always wanted to know

what's cooking...

and although he had a few canine friends, he didn't really get along with other dogs

but whenever he

yawned

tigers and wolves all over the world shuddered with fear.

He was excellent at

yoga

especially the Downward Dog and he had the best smile on the planet.

And although we miss
him...

he's always

in our hearts.

If love could have saved you

OLIVER
